Keem Bay House	5	None	No
Bills Rock view House	6	none	no
Corrymore House	8	5	no

Owing to the absence of an official public water supply and a sewerage scheme only those places which have built private supplies have bathrooms. However, all have some kind of W.C. and so are fairly satisfactory.

Corrymore House owned by Major Freyer is managed in a rather peculiar manner. The major wants only young people or those who "are young in spirit" or those to whom he takes a liking. While he does not wish his place to be advertised as a hotel, he is nevertheless anxious that it become known to those who fulfil the above conditions.

Restaurants and Cafés

This is a rather poor boarding house - a farm house which is not too well kept. Food is very plain but is quite good. Quite a few Dublin people have stayed here.
