

CURIOSITIES

Curious objects, structures, monuments, landmarks, sights, etc. For example, Wishing stones or "chairs," freaks of nature (i.e. grotesque rock formations)—in fact, any scene or object which may be regarded as queer, quaint or mirth-provoking. Location and description, Any story or legend to be related.

CUSTOMS, PATTERNS, ETC.

Brief account of old customs, traditional cures, etc., still practised in the district. Pilgrimages to Holy Wells, Shrines, etc. Patterns.

The only customs worthy of mention are the regular pilgrimages to the two holy wells in the parish. Many pilgrims from the surrounding districts visit the two undermentioned wells regularly. Both wells are very well tended.

St. Tiernan's Well in the land of Mr Sean Waters at Killeen, four miles from Crossmolina on the Errew road.

St. Patrick's Well at Tristia, about eight miles from Crossmolina, via Rake Street and then branching right on to the Newport road.

(Signed) Donor O'Brien

Surveyor.

DATE September 24th 1942.