JUST A THOUGHT:

I spent an hour in the bank with my dad, as he had to transfer some money. I couldn't resist myself and asked...
"Dad, why don't we activate your internet banking?"
"Why would I do that?" He asked...
"Well, then you won't have to spend an hour here for things like making a transfer. You can even do your shopping online. Everything will be so easy!" I was so excited about initiating him into the world of Net banking.
 He asked "If I do that, I won't have to step out of the house?"

"Yes, yes!" I said. I told him how even groceries can be delivered at your door now and how Amazon delivers everything!
 His answer left me tongue-tied. He said "Since I entered this bank today, I have met four of my friends I have chatted a while with the staff who know me very well by now. You know, I am alone... this is the company that I need. I like to get ready and come to the bank. I have enough time it is the physical touch that I crave.
Two years back, I got sick. The store owner, from whom I buy fruits, came to see me and sat by my bedside and chatted with me.
When your Mom fell down a few days back while on her morning walk, our local grocer saw her and immediately got his car to rush her home as he knows where I live. Would I have that 'human' touch if everything became online? Why would I want everything delivered to me and force me to interact with just my computer? I like to know the person that I'm dealing with and not just the 'seller'. It creates bonds of Relationships. Does Amazon deliver all this as well?" Technology isn't life. Spend time with people... Not with devices.

ANTHONY, A MAN OF THE GOSPEL – SUNDAY 13th JUNE:

On 12th September, 1985 Pope Paul II visited the Basilica of St. Anthony in Padua. On that occasion, he said: 'Let me draw your attention straight away to that special quality which crops up repeatedly in the recorded events of this saint's life and which set him apart with limitless Christian holiness, throughout his whole life, Anthony, 'a man of the Gospel'.

In all Franciscan Churches throughout the world on this Sunday 13th June St. Anthony will be honoured on his feast day. 790 years ago on this day, Anthony died at the age of 36. For almost 800 years now people have been seeking his intercession, to make representation on their behalf with God!

Anthony is known as the saint who finds things for us. All of us have lost something. I think of the many people who have lost:

- A) Hard earned money because of the financial recklessness of the few.
- B) Their homes
- C) Jobs with little hope and prospect for further employment.
- D) Parents who have lost a child in death through sickness, accidents or drugs.
- E) I think of people who are lost, who have taken a wrong road as a result of greed, reckless behaviour or sheer indifference.
- F) Those who have left the Church because of an issue or hurt by the Church and who now feel lost and are looking for a way back.

It is far easier to find a lost article than heal a lost or wounded person. Anthony's life and mission was to bring the message of Jesus to those who were lost, especially those seeking Jesus.

Popular devotion has nominated him as the finder of lost objects. Anthony found himself by losing himself totally to the providence of God.

THE FARMERS WELL: Once upon a time there was a very rich man named George sold a well to a poor farmer named Frank. Next day when Frank went to draw the water from the well George did not allow him to draw the water from it. He said, "Frank, I have sold you the well, not the water, so you cannot draw the water from the well." Frank became very sad as he needed the water for his livestock. There was a very wise man living at the far end of the parish and Frank called to him for some advice. Frank described everything to the wise man and asked for justice. The wise man called George who had sold the well. The wise man asked him, "Why don't you let this poor farmer use the water of the well. You have sold the well to him." George replied, "I have sold him the well but not the water. He has no right to draw the water from the well." Then the wise man smiled and said to the rich man, "Good, but look, since you have sold the well to this farmer, and you claim that water is yours, then you have no right to keep your water in his well, have you?. Either you pay him rent to keep your water in his well, or you take that out of his well immediately." The rich man understood that his trick had failed. The wise man had outwitted him.

MORAL: Don't Try to cheat you will end up paying for it regardless of how smart you think you are.

A LITTLE BIT OF HUMOUR

Einstein met Mr. Bean one day.

Einstein: "I will give you a question, and you will give a question to me as well. If you can't answer my question, you just give me €1, and if I can't answer your question, I will give you €1,000".

Mr. Bean: "OK".

Einstein then gave Mr. Bean a very hard question. Mr. Bean was unable to answer and he gave €1 to Einstein.

Einstein: "OK, your turn".

Mr. Bean: "What is an animal that has 4 legs, and when crossing a street he only has 2 legs, and when he goes back, he has 5 legs?"

Einstein: (Thinking very hard for long time) "I give up, I can't answer that" and then gives Mr. Bean €1,000.

Einstein: "By the way, what exactly the animal is?"

Mr. Bean then gives Einstein €1.

'We're not homeless! This is our Irish summer holiday.'

BE CAREFUL what you hear about somebody, you might be hearing it from the problem.

I don't go to Mass because I think I'm perfect. I go to Mass because I know I'm not.

DID YOU KNOW?

Not many people know this but your car has a secret device on it called an 'indicator'. If you look at your steering column, you'll find a secret stick, which will activate a flashing orange light on the outside of your car. It flashes to let other drivers know which direction you're thinking of going.

*****

"Life is really simple, but we insist on making it complicated." -Confucius.

The rich industrialist was horrified to find the fisherman lying beside his boat, smoking a pipe.

'Why aren't you out fishing?' asked the industrialist.

'Because I have caught enough fish for the day.'

'Why don't you catch some more?'

'What would I do with them?'

'You could earn more money. Then you could have a motor fitted to your boat to go into deeper waters and catch more fish. Then you would have enough money to buy nylon nets. These would bring you more fish and more money. Soon you would have enough money to own two boats . . . maybe even a fleet of boats. Then you would be a rich man like me.'

'What would I do then?'

'Then you could sit back and enjoy life.'

'What do you think I'm doing right now?'

EAVES-DROPPINGS

MONKS ON THE BEER: The Norbertine abbey, just north of Brussels, has resumed brewing beer after a gap of more than two centuries caused by invading French troops in the 1790s. The monks have opened a microbrewery on their premises to produce three varieties combining medieval recipes and modern techniques.

POPE FRANCIS: On 1 July, Pope Francis will welcome the main Christian leaders of Lebanon to address the "worrying" crisis facing the country. He has promised to visit Lebanon if its politicians agree on a new government. The association of Catholic bishops in the European Union has urged the EU to support Lebanon.

MYANMAR

MASSACRE:

Myanmar's military last week fired artillery shells at a Catholic Church in eastern Myanmar. Four civilians died when the Sacred Heart Church in Kayanthayar Parish near Loikaw, the capital city of Kayah state, was targeted. All those killed and eight others wounded were Catholics.

MUGABE: The Catholic Church in Zimbabwe has added its voice to an escalating row over whether the remains of the late president, Robert Mugabe (pictured), should be exhumed and reburied.

A traditional chief last week ordered former First Lady Grace Mugabe to exhume her husband's remains at the family cemetery in Mashonaland West and rebury them in Zimbabwe's capital, Harare, at the National Heroes Acre cemetery by 1 July. A spokesperson for the Southern African Catholic Bishops' Conference, Fr William Slattery, said that should the family decide to move the remains, prayers would need to be said by a priest before and after the exhumation.

PULLING THE STRINGS: A Brazilian Catholic priest is using puppets to provide psycho-social support to children displaced by Islamist violence in Mozambique. Fr Edegard Silva (pictured) said, "These children have witnessed horrible things in their homes before they fled to this camp, including the deaths of their parents, siblings, and neighbours. This is therapy and entertainment."

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER:

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

QUOTE: God want full custody not just weekend visits.

Our churches are open every day not just Sundays. Drop in for some quiet time, prayer and reflection.

JESUS didn't die so that we would come to church. He died so that we would become the church.

Adverse circumstances surrounding us could easily drive us into despair. And yet we have a hope that keeps us from sinking. That hope rests on Jesus and what He did for us on the Cross.

Mirror, mirror on the wall,
it matters not
if I'm short or tall.
With skinny legs,
or hips that are wide,
it only matters
who I am inside.
Blue eyes, brown eyes,
black or green,
what makes me beautiful
can't be seen.
When you look at me,
don't judge my parts,
my greatest feature
is my heart.

Little known facts...

DO YOU REALIZE IT TAKES OVER 2000 LAWS TO ENFORCE THE TEN COMMANDMENTS?

A rich life has nothing to do with money
