JUST A THOUGHT: Over the centuries the church has faced many periods of change and disruption in how we present and celebrate our faith. We have moved from a persecuted church to a dominant church (and back again) we have gone from using Greek, to Latin to English, where once the priest celebrated Mass with his back to the people, now he gathers the people around him.

Our ancestors here in Ireland once struggled to attend Mass in the cover of the mountains and while once the smells and sounds of the 'High Mass' were the experience of many now we have become used to Mass on a computer screen in our kitchens. Much has changed, but through all the centuries our faith has remained constant and what happens at Mass has remained the same: Almighty God present in a wafer of bread. That is something we will never get used to, and something we should never get used to.

Mass is always a gift. God present in a wafer of bread is God's gift of God's self to us. Thankfully God's gift is never dependent on us; on our language, on our music or on our use of technology.

Fr. Tod Nolan, Burrishoole

THEN SUDDENLY HOURS TURN INTO DAYS...DAYS INTO MONTHS...AND MONTHS INTO YEARS.

When you first have children they talk about the challenges of parenting....the struggles of a baby waking in the night, the toddler who won't stay in their bed, the cost of childcare, injuries from sports... Having to take off work to pick them up from school when they don't feel well, helping them with homework, a messy house, the never ending laundry, the cost to buy school clothes, packing their lunches....You watch their eyes light up on Christmas morning....and try to soak in the magic of those moments. You coach them in sports, rushing to training and matches...and take them all over the country to let them play the game they love...no matter how exhausting or expensive it becomes. Life is just so busy that you rarely even stop to think what the end of those days look like. In fact, it's not really even something you can wrap your mind around. You go into it thinking that 18-20 years sounds like a long time....Then suddenly hours turn into days...days into months...and months into years. That little person that used to crawl up next to you in bed and cuddle up to watch cartoons...suddenly becomes this young adult who hugs you in the hallway as they come and go. And the chaos and laughter that used to echo throughout your home....gets filled with silence and solitude.

You've learned how to parent a child who needs you to care for and protect them....but have no clue how the whole "letting go" thing is supposed to work. So you hold on as tight as you can...wondering how time passed so quickly...feeling guilty that you missed something.... Because even though you had 20 years.....it just somehow doesn't seem like it was enough.

You ask yourself so many questions...

Did you teach them the right lessons?

Did you read them enough books as a child?

Spend enough time playing with them?

How many school parties did you have to miss?

Do they really know how much you love them?

What could I have done better as a parent?

When it's time for them to go, it all hits you like a ton of bricks. Parenting is by far the most amazing experience of your life... that at times leaves you exhilarated... while others leave you heartbroken. But one thing is certain... it's never enough time... So for all the parents with young children... whose days are spent trying to figure out how to make it through the madness... Exhausted day in and day out... Soak. It. All. In. Because one day....all those crazy days full of cartoons, snuggles, sleepovers, Christmas morning magic, ballgames, practices and late night dinners...All come to an end. And you're left hoping that you did enough right, so that when they spread their wings....They'll fly...

Had to go to the doctors today to tell him about my obsession with supermarkets. "How long have you felt like this?" he asked. "Ever since I was Lidl", I told him.

My husband purchased a world map & gave me a dart and said "throw this and wherever it lands I'm taking you for a holiday when this pandemic is over" Turns out we're spending two weeks behind the fridge.

PLEASE REMEMBER WITH A PRAYER THE RECENTLY DECEASED:

Frances O'Dea, Ballybofey, Co. Donegal and formerly of Cloonamealtogue, Shrule. Funeral Mass for Frances took place in St. Patrick's Church, Kilmaine on Monday last 14th June. We also remember her sister Chrissie O'Toole who passed away in October 2010. RIP

Michael McTigue, Cloghan's Hill, Kilmaine. Funeral Mass for Michael took place at St. Patrick's Church Kilmaine on Friday last 18th June. RIP

All those who have anniversaries at this time and especially those who have no one to pray for them. May they all rest in peace with the Lord this day. RIP.

WHAT'S IN YOUR CUP?

You are holding a cup of coffee when someone comes along and accidentally bumps you and shakes your arm, making you spill coffee everywhere.

Why did you spill the coffee?

Because someone bumped into me!!!

Wrong answer.

You spilled the coffee because coffee was in the cup.

If tea had been in it, you would have spilled tea.

Whatever is inside the cup is what will spill out.

Therefore, when life comes along and shakes you, whatever is inside of you will come out.

So each of us has to ask ourselves... what's in my cup?

When life gets bumpy, what spills over?

Joy, gratefulness, peace, and humility?

Or anger, bitterness, harsh words, and reactions?

Life provides the cup; YOU choose how to fill it.

Today, let's work towards filling our cups with gratitude, forgiveness, joy, words of affirmation, kindness, gentleness, and love for others. Amen

FOREVER YOUNG:

In 1973 Bob Dylan wrote the following Song "Forever Young" as a prayer and blessing for his children. It speaks of a blessing for all of us as we grow older. Staying forever young means having a curious and evolving spirit, not living in or trying to hold on to the past, but continuing to embrace God and life and the creative possibilities that remain, right now, in the present moment.

May God bless and keep you always,
May your wishes all come true,
May you always do for others
And let others do for you.

May you build a ladder to the stars
And climb on every rung,
May you stay forever young,
Forever young, forever young,
May you stay forever young.

May you grow up to be righteous,
May you grow up to be true,
May you always know the truth
And see the lights surrounding you.
May you always be courageous,
Stand upright and be strong,
May you stay forever young,
Forever young, forever young,
May you stay forever young.

May your hands always be busy,
May your feet always be swift,
May you have a strong foundation
When the winds of changes shift.
May your heart always be joyful,
May your song always be sung,
May you stay forever young,
Forever young, forever young,
May you stay forever young.

EAVES-DROPPINGS

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER: "I've got to rush I have an 11 o'clock in Penzance", says Father Philip Dyson moments after celebrating Mass in St Ives on Sunday morning, attended by the US President Joe Biden and his wife Dr Jill Biden. The Presidential party was 15 minutes late for the service. (Probably a legacy of his Irish DNA!) The narrow streets of St Ives were locked down as the Presidential motorcade took over and secret service agents swarmed the town. The few lucky enough to have chosen to attend church today had no advance warning of their special guests who sat in a pew towards the back of the Sacred Heart and St. Ia Catholic Church. At the end of the Mass the President had a few words with some of the congregation who say they saw him make a "substantial" donation to the collection. Unusually for the church the bulk of the money given by the congregation this week were dollar bills.

ON THE MAKING OF BISHOPS: The task of announcing new Church of England bishops will fall to a minister other than the Prime Minister following Boris Johnson's Catholic marriage to Carrie Symonds in Westminster Cathedral recently. Mr Johnson, who was baptised Catholic, has been described as Britain's first Catholic prime minister, which means that he may no longer advise the monarch on Episcopal appointments.

'And where do you see yourself in five years' time?'

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER:

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

QUOTE: God want full custody not just weekend visits.

Our churches are open every day not just Sundays. Drop in for some quiet time, prayer and reflection.

JESUS didn't die so that we would come to church. He died so that we would become the church.

This is very important for the Charitable Donation Scheme. Thank you for your continuing support.

Welcome to those Outside of Parish: People outside of the parish are most welcome to attend public liturgies in the parish. Please observe guidelines. Regarding contributions please continue to support your parish & use your own parish envelopes It is standard practice for envelopes to be returned to their respective parishes.

GOD WITH YOU

The presence of the sacred Three,
The blessing of the Trinity,
Be upon your working day,
Upon the people on your way,
Upon your labour and your toil,
Upon the earth and the soil,
Upon the tools that you take,
Upon the things that you make,
Upon the thoughts of your mind,
Upon your sharing with humankind,
Upon the love that you share,
Upon all for whom you care.
The presence of the sacred Three,
The blessing of the Trinity.

What People THINK Causes Depression:

- Weakness
- Laziness
- An inability to "suck it up"

What ACTUALLY Causes Depression:

- | | | |
|----------------------|---|--------------------------|
| • Trauma | • Overworking | • Lifestyle factors |
| • Abuse | • Excess stress | • Body image issues |
| • Neglect | • Being "the carer" at the expense of their own wellbeing | • Perfectionism |
| • Bullying | • Genetic factors | • Lack of social support |
| • Chemical imbalance | • Lack of fulfillment | • Low self-esteem |
| • Grief & loss | | • Chronic fatigue |

Depression is a very complicated illness - there's not simple solution that allows one to just "snap out of it".

Please remember this.

#BreakTheStigma

WHO YOU ARE: Before you speak to me about your religion, first show it to me in how you treat other people; before you tell me how much you love your God, show me in how much you love all His children; before you preach to me of your passion for your faith, teach me about it through your compassion for your neighbors. In the end, I'm not as interested in what you have to tell or sell as I am in how you choose to live and give. — Cory Booker

WHEN YOU THOUGHT I WASN'T LOOKING

- When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you hang my first painting on the refrigerator, and I immediately wanted to paint another one.
- When you thought I wasn't looking saw you feed a stray cat, and I learned that it was good to be kind to animals.
- When you thought I wasn't looking, saw you make my favourite cake for me and I learned that the little things can be the special things in life.
- When you thought I wasn't looking I heard you say a prayer, and I knew there is a God I could always talk to and I learned to trust in God.
- When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you make a meal and take it to a friend who was sick, and I learned that we all have to help take care of each other.
- When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you give of your time and money to help people who had nothing and I learned that those who have something should give to those who don't.
- When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you take care of our house and everyone in it and I learned we have to take care of what we are given.
- When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw how you handled your responsibilities, even when you didn't feel good and I learned that I would have to be responsible when I grow up.
- When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw tears come from your eyes and I learned that sometimes things hurt, but it's all right to cry.
- When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw that you cared and I wanted to be everything that I could be.
- When you thought I wasn't looking, I learned most of life's lessons that I need to know to be a good and productive person when I grow up.
- When you thought I wasn't looking, I looked at you and wanted to say, "Thanks for all the things I saw when you thought I wasn't looking."

UNTIL GOD opens another door for you, praise Him in the hallway.

Dear Human

You can't give up.

You can't give up on love because others are hateful. You can't give up on believing in one another because you've been let down. You can't give up on hope because pain came your way. You can't give up on kindness because some people are cruel. You can't give up on peace because war surrounds you. You can't give up on dreams because they don't always come true. Life isn't about everything being in order. Life isn't about bliss. Life is about learning to live, love, hope and believe in the midst of perfect imperfection. Life is messy, complicated, confusing and beautiful all at the same time. Life is the single best give you have ever been given.

You can't give up.

A CHILDREN'S TALE - TODAY WAS A DIFFICULT DAY

"Today was a Difficult Day," said Pooh. There was a pause.
"Do you want to talk about it?" asked Piglet.
"No," said Pooh after a bit. "No, I don't think I do."
"That's okay," said Piglet, and he came and sat beside his friend.
"What are you doing?" asked Pooh.
"Nothing, really," said Piglet. "Only, I know what Difficult Days are like. I quite often don't feel like talking about it on my Difficult Days either.
"But goodness," continued Piglet, "Difficult Days are so much easier when you know you've got someone there for you. And I'll always be here for you, Pooh."
And as Pooh sat there, working through in his head his Difficult Day, while the solid, reliable Piglet sat next to him quietly, swinging his little legs...he thought that his best friend had never been more right." It's a challenging time for us all right now. Sending thoughts to those having a Difficult Day today and hope you have your own Piglet to sit beside you ❤️
